V. Other Tips

1. Scholarship recipients must complete the registration procedures according to the schedule time stipulated by the school. Scholarship will not be reserved and the enrolling qualification will be canceled if scholarship recipient cannot register before the registration deadline.

Scholarship holders must complete the registration according to the schedule specified by the school. Scholarship will not be retained for those who fail to register for no reason before the deadline and they will be disqualified for admission.

2. Applicants should join the CSC annual review organized by the school as required. The scholarship for those who fail the review will be suspended or canceled.

Scholarship holders must participate in the scholarship annual review according to the regulations. The scholarship will be suspended or canceled for those who fail to pass the review.

3. Scholarship recipients are not allowed to change their field of study, or duration of study stipulated on the Admission Letter after arriving in China.

In principle, the scholarship holders shall not change the major and duration of study.

4. Scholarship recipients at the same time shouldn't receive other scholarships provided by Chinese governments at all levels or admitted institutions (one time bounties are not included), otherwise one's Chinese Governments Scholarships will be canceled and one shall return the money received. If any concealment was found, one's scholarship will be canceled and one won't be allowed to apply for Chinese Government Scholarship for the next 3 years.

Scholarship holders are not allowed to receive other scholarships (excluding one-time awards) provided by governments at all levels and admission colleges in China at the same time. Once found, they will be disqualified and return Chinese government scholarship. For those who deliberately conceal the funding fact, they are not allowed to apply for China government scholarships within 3 years, except for disqualification.
